The Wisconsin National Guard Association (WINGA), Inc. is a professional membership organization for officers, which is affiliated with the National Guard Association of the United States (NGAUS).

WINGA, Inc. has partnered with the Wisconsin National Guard (WING) and NGAUS since its establishment in 1951. The three organizations have helped immeasurably in support of Army and Air National Guard objectives, resulting in greatly enhanced mobilization readiness. WINGA, Inc. is a non-profit association.

- Foster military professionalism.
- Increase public awareness of the value of the Army and Air National Guard.
- Nurture relationships with military leaders, government officials, corporate partners and civic leaders.
- Offer professional development training and networking opportunities.
- Transform member ideas into state and federal resolutions and ultimately legislative actions.

WINGA Mission

The mission of the Wisconsin National Guard Association, Inc. is to promote the readiness, modernization and relevance of the Wisconsin National Guard family and its members.

WINGA Vision

To ensure WING is retained as a relevant, combat-ready, operational force and that all Guard members and stakeholders recognize the significance and value of the association.

WINGA Values

Principled leadership in the performance of our duties to serve our Guard members and stakeholders by advancing relevant policies in our state and nation.

Core Strategies

1. Advance legislative initiatives at the state and national levels.
2. Provide effective communications to members and partners.
3. Ensure operational funding sources are diversified.
